

Frequently Asked Questions

How does attestation help?

Attestation verifies the legitimacy of documents, the identity of a person, or the truthfulness of information in statements or reports. Depending on the type of document and jurisdiction, this process is frequently performed by notaries public or other authorized personnel. While formal attestation procedures may involve signing, they can vary based on regulations and requirements.

Which kind of documents are attestable?

We offer a list of documents that can be attested or apostilled on your behalf. Check out the list of documents under the Services page. We are continuously striving to broaden our services to encompass an extensive variety of credentials. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with us..

I am confused. Do I require an apostille or legalization from the embassy?

This is the most frequently requested question by our clients. The country in which you intend to use the document determines whether you need embassy legalization or an apostille. On our home page, we explain the distinction between the two techniques. To find out, scroll to the bottom of the main page and select your nation from the drop-down menu. Kindly refer to our links page for additional details.

I am in a hurry. Can you help?

Absolutely! We specialize in fast and reliable attestation services for all your personal, educational, and business documents. . No more embassy marathons or document dead ends. We handle everything, from apostilles to legalisations, with lightning speed and laser-sharp accuracy.

Why is attestation done?

When you present a legal document in a foreign country, it is frequently difficult to determine whether the document is genuine and legal. As a result, overseas governments may require proof that the documents you hold are genuine and not fake or that the signatures of officials on documents are genuine before they will accept them. Attested documents can therefore be used to obtain employment or to get admissions in universities. .Attestation is universal, whether you are from Pakistan, America, or India. It is the document verification. During the attestation / legalization procedure, your documents are sent through numerous departments to ensure that they are legitimate. The attestation process begins at the state level where the document was issued (such as the Home Department/ HRD/ GAD of states), then moves to the central government level, the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA), and finally to the Embassy/Consulate in India of the country where the document's purpose lies.

How long does attesting educational documents take?

In the case of HRD authenticated documents, it usually takes 8 to 10 days for attestation from all departments, including the Ministry of External Affairs and embassies such as Qatar, the United Arab Emirates, Oman, Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, and others. Documents requiring HRD or GAD attestation will be verified first, and the duration will be determined by the completion of university verification.

What are the full forms of the short terms used in this website?

HRD - Human Resource Department - This department works under the state's home ministry and keeps a record of all degree certificates awarded by universities in that state. GAD stands for General Administrative Department. SDM stands for Sub Divisional Magistrate.

What documents should be submitted for attestation?

If it is an educational document, you must include your original degree, a copy of your passport, and a copy of your visa (if applicable). If you are submitting a Marriage Certificate/Affidavit or a Birth Certificate, you must include the original certificate, a copy of your passport, and a copy of your visa (where applicable).

What are the procedures for attestation in UAE?

Documents must be certified in your home country, at the appropriate government office, at the UAE embassy, and by filling out an application at the UAE Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) when you arrive in order to be certified for the UAE. In the UAE, further certificates relevant to a certain industry could be needed. We will translate and notarize any documents that are not in Arabic.

Could you describe the attestation procedures in Qatar?

Attestation is a mindful and systematic process that requires close attention throughout. In Qatar, certificate attestation entails HRD authentication of the respective state that issued the testimony. Second, it must be attested by the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) and finally by the Qatari Embassy.

What are the steps involved in the Oman Apostille?

Essentially, the attestation technique consists of four steps: The document must first be validated by the Home Department of the candidate's home state. Second, the Ministry of External Affairs must attest to it. Third, the document must be presented to the Oman Embassy for authentication. Finally, it must be authenticated by Oman's Ministry of Foreign Affairs before your document may be verified as lawful

To whom attestation needs?

Attestation is required for anyone planning to go to another country for education, work, permanent residency, business establishment, or any other reason. The candidate and his documents must be authenticated in order to verify that the credentials are genuine and that they may be used legally in the country.

Why is attestation important?

If you wish to travel to another country and apply for a visa, you must have all of your documents attested. Only after the officials properly verify the authenticity of the documents will the candidate be permitted to enter any country. Attestation of a certificate establishes its authenticity and allows it to be used in the country for employment, education, and commercial purposes, among other things.

What is the procedure of Attestation in Qatar?

Documents must be certified in your home country, at the appropriate government office at the UAE embassy and by filling out an application at the UAE Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) when you arrive in order to be certified for the UAE. In the UAE, further certificates relevant to a certain industry could be needed. We will translate and notarize any documents that are not in Arabic. In order to authenticate a document in Qatar, you must first authenticate it in your home country, have it notarized by the appropriate government agency, get a certificate from the Qatari embassy or consulate, and then bring the document to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Ministry of Foreign Affairs) in Qatar. The document might need to be translated into Arabic and notarized in Qatar. Depending on the type of document, different requirements could apply. As a result, we advise that you contact the appropriate authorities or look for expert advice to get the most recent information.

What is the distinction between an Apostille and an Embassy Legalisation?

Apostille is the process of simplified documentation of public documents like birth documents, marriage certificates, notarized documents and so on. It is only used in countries that are under the Hague Apostille Convention which is an international treaty that does the authentication process whereas Embassy Legalization is the process of authentication by the embassy or consulate of your destination country. This is only needed to be done for countries that are not under the Hague Apostille Convention.

What is Apostille?

Oman has one of its most significant sectors in the country. It is situated in the Arabian Peninsula's south-east region. There is no doubt that tourism is incredibly important to the culture and people of Oman. It is a Hague Convention country, and any document that wants to be utilized in Oman requires an Apostille.

Top significant countries that require Apostille attestation

- Australia
- Canada
- France
- Germany
- India
- Italy
- Japan
- Oman
- Russia
- United States of America
- United Kingdom etc

What are procedures for the Oman apostille?

Oman Apostille Procedure Non-Educational Documents:

- Apostille from home department

- MEA Apostille
- Oman embassy

Educational Document:

- SDM or HRD Apostille
- MEA Apostille
- Oman embassy Apostille

Why do you need an Oman apostille?

Document Apostille in Oman is required:

- Job application.
- Visa Purpose
- Higher education.
- Migration purposes etc.

Apostille is the authentication recognised in Hague Convention countries. After being confirmed, the Apostille documents have the seal and signature of the respective authorities. The only supporting papers required for Apostille are the original certificate and a copy of your passport.

What is the goal of WES accreditation?

- Migration purposes
- Higher study purposes
- Permanent residence visa purposes
- Job/ Employment purposes

Do you believe that PCC is a record of our past activities? What is the primary goal of PCC?

A police clearance certificate serves as a record of one's previous activity. The primary aim of police clearance certificates is to determine whether or not the individual has any criminal histories, such as arrests, convictions, court procedures, or other legal concerns.

What certificates are required for the apostille of a marriage certificate?

- Passport copy

- Original Marriage certificate

PCC attestation is a verification obtained by the home country; is it true or fraudulent, and why?

Police Clearance Certificate Attestation is a certification issued by the home nation stating whether or not the individual has any criminal records, including arrest, conviction, and perhaps court proceedings.

What are the most essential sorts of documents that require both attestation and apostille?

- Educational certificates
- Non educational certificates
- Commercial certificates

List some common purposes of certificate Apostille and attestation

- Migration purposes
- Job purposes
- Resident visa purposes
- Higher study purposes
- School admission purposes
- Business purposes
- Financial purposes

What is the significance of transfer certificate attestation?

If a student is moving overseas for higher education, in order to be admitted to a foreign university, the student must submit an attested transfer certificate issued by the destination country's embassy or consulate in your home country.

